THE ANSWER. To the Hebrew Congregations in the City of Philadelphia, New York, Charleston and Richmond :

Gentlemen: The liberality of sentiment towards each other which marks every political and religious denomination of men in this country, stands unparalleled in the history of nations.

The affection of such a people is a treasure beyond the reach of calculation; and the repeated proofs which my fellow-citizens have given of their attachment to me and approbation of my doings, form the purest source of my temporal felicity. The affectionate expressions of your address again excite my gratitude, and receive my warmest acknowledgement.

The following story, from the Milwaukee Wisconsin, reads like a romance of Cooper's, condensed, but is said to be a record of facts gathered by a gentle- Board man who is collecting material for a and s history of the upper Miseiselppi valley:

"A party of thirty Winnelesgoes came down from the late scalp dance at which the tribe was gathered on the Trampeleau river, in the North, and encamped on French's Island, in the Mississippi river, just above the St. Paul Rallroad Depot at LaCrosse.

"The band was under the control of a well-known chief of the Winnebagoes of the Lee Academy, will be the principal instructions, and she is authorized to collect all current fees during the ensuing schoiastle year, and receipt officially fair the same. history of the upper Mississippi valley :

well-known chief of the Winnebagoes named Wau-kee-se-hoong-er-er, or Snake Chief, who had two wives, Se-ss-ka and Chief, who had two wives, Se-ss-ka and Hs-ace-ker. Se-ss-ka and Hs-ace-ker. Se-ss-ka about thirty years of age, graceful in appearance, with a pleasant look and an interesting face. With the whites she was a favorite, while with the Winnebagous she was looked upon very hindly—indeed, adorad face. With the whites she was a favorite, while with the Winnebagoesshe was tooked upon very kindly—indeed, adored with all the ardor of Indian fervor.

Shake Chief was a noted warrior of the Winnebagoes, and was very much liked by his tribe. He was a powerful and brawny fellow, and when sober, was peaceful and good-natured; when drunk, he was ugly and disagreeable. One of his favorite pastimes, when in this condition, was beating his wives.

"On Friday last Snake Chief returned to his wigwain drunk, Seec ka was in
